Conditions of Sale

1. Rejection of Bids. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
2. The Buyer. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.
3. Identification and Deposit by Buyer. The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address. ¶ A deposit at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required. ¶ If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and re-sold.
4. Risk after Purchase. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's risk, and neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss of, or any damage to any article by theft, fire, breakage, however occasioned, or any other cause whatsoever.
5. Delivery of Purchases. Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.
6. Receipted Bills. Goods will only be delivered on presentation of a receipted bill. A receipted bill presented by any person will be recognized and honored as an order by the buyer, directing the delivery to the bearer of the goods described thereon. If a receipted bill is lost before delivery of the property has been taken, the buyer should immediately notify the Association of such loss.
7. Storage in Default of Prompt Payment and Calling for Goods. Articles not paid for in full and not called for by the purchaser or agent by noon of the day following that of the sale may be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage and any other charges will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser. ¶ In any instance where the purchase bill has not been paid in full by noon of the day following that of the sale, the Association and the auctioneer reserve the right, any other stipulation in these conditions of sale notwithstanding, in respect to any or all lots included in the purchase bill, at its or his option, either to cancel the sale thereof or to re-sell the same at public or private sale without further notice for the account of the buyer and to hold the buyer responsible for any deficiency and all losses and expenses sustained in so doing.
8. Shipping. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, but the Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

9. Guaranty. The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of the sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

10. Records. The records of the auctioneer and the Association are in all cases to be considered final and the highest bid shall in all cases be accepted by both buyer and seller as the value against which all claims for losses or damage shall lie.

11. Buying on Order. Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph, or telephone, if conditions permit, will be faithfully attended to without charge of commission Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale, except that, in the event of a purchase of a lot of one or more books by or for a purchaser who has not through himself or his agent been present at the exhibition or sale, the Association will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be refunded, if the lot differs from its catalogue description. ¶ Orders for execution by the Association should be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid for volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit must be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

These conditions of sale cannot be altered except by the auctioneer or by an officer of the Association

FOREWORD

THE origin and extent of the Bishop Török collection is amply set forth in the summary which I have prepared from the able German introduction by Dr. Heinrich Leporini, the custodian of the Albertina collection in Vienna, and it will be unnecessary here to do more than call attention to the importance of the occasion.

The attributions of Dr. Leporini have been followed as closely as possible in respect to those drawings which are fully described in the German catalogue; a realignment has, of course, been necessary for the purposes of public sale, and for the convenience of the buyer the collection has been arranged in alphabetical instead of chronological order. The numbers, e. g. [T. 382, ill. Pl. XXX] following the descriptions refer to the corresponding numbers and plates in the accompanying German catalogue.

L. A. H.

INTRODUCTION

Translated and summarized from the preface by Dr. Heinrich Leporini, custodian of the Albertina, Vienna.

BISHOP DR. JOHANN TÖRÖK, who was born in 1890 at Nagy-Kanizsa, belongs to the youngest generation of collectors. He has shown from the time of his youthful studies in theology and jurisprudence in Hungary, Germany and Rome a leaning towards artistic appreciation, and when at the age of 24 he became Professor of Canon Law at the Greek College in Rome, he commenced, modestly at first, his career as a connoisseur. Following the disturbances of the war, he was fortunate enough to acquire the Viennese collection of Dr. Wilhelm König, a collection which had needed twenty years for its formation; this well-known amateur had had the benefit of the advice of his personal friend, Dr. Alfred Stix, Director of the Albertina collection in Vienna, but had followed largely his own excellent taste and judgment in the purchase of his drawings. Further, among the finest examples of the Török collection, is a number of drawings formerly belonging to the Albertina, but dispersed with the rest of the Hapsburg possessions; all the drawings acquired since 1895, principally by the former Director Meder, remained the property of the Archduke Friedrich, and came in part upon the market.

. . . In my cataloguing of the collection, I was delighted to recognize in the powerful and genial Study of a Triton [T. 95, ill. Pl. XVIII], erroneously attributed to Cambiaso, the hand of Lorenzo Bernini, the great master of Baroque art. The drawing is almost certainly a sketch for one of the figures of tritons of the Trevi Fountain in Rome, the attribution being supported by the appearance of the little sketch of the Dome of St. Peter's [which was completed by Bernini] in the background. Similarly in the Christ in the Temple [T. 68, Pl. XIV], I recognized the characteristic hand of Cigoli, and in a chiaroscuro drawing [T. 32, Pl. VI] a charming work of the rare master Girolamo Pennacchi of Treviso. Other discoveries which came to light included a characteristic drawing in the mannered style of Andrea Boscoli [T. 43, Pl. IX]; the Studies of two kneeling Shepherds [T. 64, Pl. XIII] by Lorenzo Lippi; two sanguine drawings [T. 66, 67] by Cecco Bravo; a charming Head of a Maiden by Domenichino [T. 80, Pl. XIII] and a Bacchanalia [T. 94, Pl. XVII] by Pietra da Cortona. Among the drawings of the German school, I have identified examples by Augustin Hirschvogel, Lindtmayer, Rottenhammer, and Michael Herr.

Among the new-found works of the Dutch school, we may refer to a composition by Crispin van den Boek [T. 378, Pl. XXIX] by whom are known only a few sketches in the Albertina; a small drawing [T. 379] by Hans Bol; a beautiful chiaroscuro [T. 386] by Abraham Bloemaert; an interesting pen drawing [T. 390] with a view of a Gothic town, by the rare master, Gillis Mostaert; a View of Landshut [T. 391, Pl. XXXIII] by Lucas van Valckenborgh, who worked for a considerable time in Linz in the court of the Archduke Matthew, and a Romantic Landscape [T. 394] by Jodocus Momper, etc.

Mention must be made of a pen drawing of two angels [T. 398] which shows the hand of Rubens, and appears to be part of a study for a painting by this master, formerly in the collection of Count Schönborn Pommersfeld [until the year 1867] and later sold in Paris; a sanguine drawing [T. 403] in the manner of Jacob Jordaens; A Market Scene, by Jan Martinsz Sorgh [T. 408, Pl. XXXVI], whose drawings are sufficiently scarce; one of the most beautiful and distinguished examples of the collection, A Sacrifice [T. 413, Pl. XXXVIII] by Ferdinand Bol, Rembrandt's best pupil; and, finally, two landscapes by Meindert Hobbema [T. 425, 426, Pl. XXXIX] with the completeness of finished pictures.

The most beautiful and most valuable drawing of the collection is, in my opinion, the magnificent and living Study of a Horse, by Titian [T. 29, Pl. V], which is also among the most powerful and expressive of the small number which have come down to us from the hand of the great master; only about thirty original drawings by Titian are in fact known. This work has been studied by Frau Doktor L. Fröhlich-Bum in the Jahrbuch der Kunsthistorischen Sammlungen, Vienna, 1927.

The three Dürer drawings [T. 186, Pl. XXV] appeared in Volume XII of the publications of the Dürer Society in London, Notes and Sketches by Albrecht Dürer, London, 1911, together with a note by the well-known expert Campbell Dodgson, Curator of the Prints of the British Museum. [The critique by Mr. Dodgson is given in English in the Leporini introduction.]

The two little pen sketches from the Lamponi Collection [T. 3 and 4, Pl. I] display so characteristically the shorthand style which Raphael used in his pen drawings that the correctness of their attribution may be said to be beyond question.

The two Studies of Lions [T. 10, Pl. II] bear attribution to Michaelangelo on account of their close stylistic connection with a drawing in the Albertina, which has always been given to this master.

From the hand of Velasquez there are actually no properly authenticated drawings in existence; the attributions published by A. L. Mayer in his book of Spanish drawings [New York, 1915] are not convincing. A Portrait of a General on Horseback [T. 186, Pl. XXIV] bears the name of Velasquez in old handwriting and comes from the Crozat collection; in deference to its distinguished provenance and to its traditional attribution, and in the absence of comparative data, we have been unable to question its genuineness.

Rembrandt is represented by a characteristic pen drawing [T. 410, Pl. XXXVII].

Among other examples worthy of a place in any great collection are the excellent drawings by Guercino [T. 54-59, Pl. XI and XII]; a bold and masterly sanguine by Van Dyck [T. 400]; a few magnificent sheets by Luca Giordano [above all, T. 106 and 107, Pl. XIX]; the interesting "cubist" drawing [T. 42, Pl. VIII] by Luca Cambiaso and the beautiful Preaching of St. John [T. 41, Pl. VII]; a few drawings by the two Tiepolos, and the charming ceiling decoration by Diziani [T. 152, Pl. XXXIII].

Not least is a series of outstanding architectural and scenic drawings, many of which are in colors; the best of these are a ceiling decoration by Giovanni Alberti and a few elegant stage settings by the Galli Bibiena, who were employed during the eighteenth century as scene painters by almost all the princely courts of Europe.

Among the works of the nineteenth century masters, the collection possesses some few of the French school, notably sketches by J. L. David, J. L. Géricault, Alexandre Decamp and Eugène Fromentin [T. 598-601]. The English school is somewhat better represented by the works of Wheatley [T. 559], Rowlandson [T. 557, 558], John Flaxman [T. 592], William Blake [T. 593, Pl. XLIII], John Constable [T. 595-597], and the pre-Raphaelites, Rossetti [T. 831] and Burne-Jones [T. 830].

An enormous number of German and Austrian drawings ranging from the works of the Classical, Nazarene and Romantic schools of the first half of the century down to the productions of the powerful and temperamental leader of modern art, Lovis Corinth, are contained in the collection. It is impossible to mention more than a few of the most important of the artists in question, many of whose drawings appear but rarely upon the market; such men are Joseph Anton Koch, Philipp Veit, Ferdinand von Olivier, Bonaventura Genelli, Julius Schnorr von Carolsfeld, Ludwig Richter, Moritz von Schwind, Marées, Böcklin, Karl Spitzweg, and Friedrich August Kaulbach; of the youngest modernist painters, Egon Schiele, Oskar Kokoschka, Robert Philippi, Oskar Larsen, Georg Pevetz and Theodor Herzmansky. The Austrian Nazarene and Romantic schools are represented by good examples of Scheffer von Leonhardshoff, Kuppelwieser and Joseph Von Führich; the painters of the Biedermeier period by Ferdinand Waldmüller, Joseph Danhauser, Peter Fendi, Friedrich von Amerling, Joseph Heicke, Thomas Ender, Joseph Höger and Johann Raffalt; the masters of the 'seventies and 'eighties by the Viennese Hans Makart, Canon, and August von Pettenkofen; and the modern revolution [in Vienna, the "Secession" movement] by its fountain-head, Gustav Klimt.

I conclude with a brief glance at the names of the most distinguished of the Hungarian masters: Mihail Munkacsy [T. 811, Pl. XLVII], Lippay [T. 813, Pl. XLVII] and Julius Benczur. I am much beholden to my colleague Dr. Benesch for information concerning the Dutch drawings, and to the friendly cooperation of the owner of the collection, Bishop Dr. Johann Török.
